LEDYARD'S ANNUAL CELEBRATION.

Big Gathering at the Bill Library Dinner—Address by President Luther of Trinity College Following Trustees' Meeting—Officers Elected and Reports.

Probably the Bill Library of Ledyard has been more liberally advertised during the forty-three years of its existence than any other institution of the kind in Connecticut. The people for whose benefit it was established manifest a commendable pride in its orderly and efficient management, and avail themselves of its privileges to an extent hardly to be looked for in so sparsely inhabited a section of country. The annual dinner, which for many years has been an attractive feature, draws from the people of the town and as well from many localities outside, a gathering of hundreds who at the tables, always bountifully supplied, testify to the possession of hearty appetites and in the mingling of friends and acquaintances, to the enjoyment of social amenities. Those who are fond of oratory and music can to the extent of the number the church will accommodate find gratification here. The doings upon the ground are as decorous and seemly as if the occasion were a Sunday school convention. In fact, a semi-religious tint seems to color the whole proceedings. The dinner, which is a most enjoyable feast, but contributes a quarter per plate to the fund for the expenses of the association, has been a success in rendering the popularity of the feast the more notable.

The dinner for the present season occurred on Wednesday, and weather conditions being all that could be desired.

The Rev. Plavel S. Luther, LL.D., president of Trinity College, was introduced as the principal speaker of the day. His address was delivered in an easy, familiar manner, but without any attempt at oratorical display. He commenced with a reference to his boyhood days given at the time he was a student in Windham county, once the shire town, but since denuded from that position by the growth of the town of Ledyard, where it was in the time of his boyhood. He spoke of the library in the old town. To his juvenile imagination, when in later life he visited it he was astonished to find it had not more than 400.

Essentials of a Good Library. He noted four things that are essential to a good library. First, a building. He was pleased to see the library here so well sheltered. Second, books. The selection of these is an exceedingly important matter. Third, a librarian. He did not like to see the library here, nor whether that official was a man or woman, so his remarks must not be taken as a reflection. A good librarian was a very important part of the furnishing of a good working library. And fourth, the care of the books. He did not like to see the library here, nor whether that official was a man or woman, so his remarks must not be taken as a reflection. A good librarian was a very important part of the furnishing of a good working library.

Annual Meeting. The trustees held their annual meeting in the room allotted to their use in the library building at 11 o'clock a. m. The reports of the officers were read and approved. The report of the treasurer showed the amount of the bill for the year of 1910.

Frederic Bill presented a number of books and manuscripts of interest for which he was tendered a vote of thanks.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, William L. Allen; vice presidents, Isaac Geer, John M. Gray, secretary, Russell Gallup; treasurer, Billings T. Avery; executive committee, Isaac G. Geer, Billings T. Avery, Thomas P. Norman, William L. Allen, John M. Gray, and Frederic Bill. Thomas Latham, John M. Gray, Russell Gallup, and William L. Allen were elected to the board of trustees.

At the conclusion of the business adjournment was taken for the exercises in the church. The edifice was well filled. The platform, as usual, was tastefully decorated with flowers.

The programme was opened with a chorus by the choir, which was followed by prayer offered by the Rev. Mr. Harrison of Hallowell, Me.

Welcome by Rev. W. F. White. Another chorus by the choir was given, followed by a brief address of welcome by the Rev. W. F. White, pastor of the Ledyard church. He welcomed the guests and the members of the association.

She carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Whitney wore white messaline and carried white sweet peas.

Miss Mabel Bill of Melrose, Mass., recited with highly dramatic effect an original poem depicting many of the patriotic incidents which have marked the country's history. This was followed by a solo by Charles Geer.

DO IT NOW Norwich People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due to most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer grows weaker and weaker, until, at last, death comes. Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headache, dizziness, if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. J. C. Shepard, 107 High St., Norwich, Conn., says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills an indispensable remedy for kidney and bladder trouble. Several years ago I had a severe attack of kidney trouble and learned of their great value. They proved very effective at that time, bringing positive relief from pain in the back and correcting other kidney difficulties that had caused me a great deal of suffering. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from N. D. Sevin & Sons' drug store, and when I learned of their great value, I have kept a supply in the house."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the U. S. Beware of cheap imitations. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

When Merit Wins. When the medicine you take cures your disease, shows up your talent, and more virtues than before, that's when you know it's the right one. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are for you in all cases of kidney trouble, backache, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, and general weakness—that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder.
